

Heavy vehicles such as trucks and trailers and tradesmen's vehicles are now routinely parked on this nature strip while the drivers shop at the Curtin Group Centre. The damage to the natural landscape is obvious.

Heavy vehicles also partially block access to the car park itself by parking adjacent to the dental surgery while the drivers do their shopping.

A complete redesign of the parking spaces, entry and exit and traffic movement lanes are required in this area of the Group Centre.